GENEALOGY MAIN TREE & BRANCHES INFORMATION

Not all of the Eisenbeiß families have been tied into one tree. To help ease the potential confusion with the different branches, two main trees with the code letters a: and b: have been established. These two main trees will be combined when the relationship between the two has been established.

Additional branches which have not yet been tied to these main trees are labeled with the letters c: ... z:. When these branches are connected to one of the main trees, they will receive an a: or b: number.

ADDITIONS & CORRECTIONS

The genealogical section is still quite incomplete and may have errors. It is hoped that descendants from the different branches will continue the research in an attempt to fix the errors and to tie all of the families together into one tree.

To help distribute the workload, it is requested that all information be entered electronically in the correct format and emailed to Clyde Eisenbeis. Contact Clyde for the correct format / current procedure (the procedures continue to evolve as technology changes).

GENEALOGY NUMBERING SYSTEM

There can be considerable confusion with so many families. To ease the confusion, a numbering system is used throughout the entire document. The leading digits indicate the parent's number, and the last digit indicates the placement in the family (i.e. a:3.2 is the second child of the a:3 parents).

a: Father > a:1 First Child

> a:2 Second Child =>
> a:3 Third Child =>
> a:4 Fourth Child
---
a:2 Second Child
> a:2.1 First Child of a:2
> a:2.2 Second Child of a:2 =>
> a:2.3 Third Child of a:2
---
a:2.2 Second Child of a:2
> a:2.2.1 First Child of a:2.2
---
a:3 Third Child
> a:3.1 First Child of a:3
> a:3.2 Second Child of a:3

The first character indicates a different family tree. The character 'b' is another family tree, the character 'c' is another, etc.

Note that a '-' is used instead of a '.' after every fifth number to help distinguish the differences between long strings of numbers ... for example, a:3.1.5.3.7-4.8.2.1.3-7.1 CLYDE THOMAS EISENBEIS. This number indicates that I am the oldest child, my father was the seventh child, my grandfather was the third child, my great grandfather was the oldest child, etc.

Some of the information in the 'z' section, at the end, is from a variety of sources including church records, history books, and tax listings. The English translation in []'s may have errors.

It is important to note that Eliasbrunn (old name Ehabrunn), Thierbach, Ruppersdorf, Gahma (Gamen), Friesau, Altengesees (Altengesass), Payreut (Bayreuth), Neunbeutha (Neunbeuta), and Lobenstein are all very close to each other. This is from where the b: and y: families and quite possibly the k: families originate. It is quite likely the a: family also originates from this area, but moved to the Freudenstad area.

                       district, Kherson province".
                      He lived also in Odessa region.
                      After the revolution, because of the persecution of Soviet power, he with his family ran away from Odessa circa 1920-1921 and moved to Donbass. Traveled on roof of train and walked on foot. In Marganez met an old lady, who recommended they stay there. He worked at the ore repair plant.
                      A good man who loved all his daughters.
                      Read a lot. Fished a lot to feed his family.
                      Tichon was killed at age of 46 during Stalin's repressions against the German population of Ukraine in 1930.
                      When Tichon was killed, his daughter Nadezhda was killed by accident, his wife Maria suffered a strong trauma of the nose. This damage to her nose existed her entire life.

                          Helped compile this genealogy doc.
                          He, along with many Germans, moved from Bessarabia to Germany in 1940. Hitler made a deal with Stalin.
                           Stalin would release the Germans if Hitler gave Stalin some wheat.

Not substantiated.
A son who moved to South Dakota told of his father's violent death. His description matched that of a newspaper article written at that time. The son hid in the attic of the house when the men beat and took away his father.

Immigrated to US and arrived in Baltimore, Maryland in Jun 1893 along with their deceased son's (a:3.1.5.3.7-4.8.2.1) children Jakob, Christ, and John. Also on this ship were their son, Friedrich (a:3.1.5.3.7-4.8.2.8) and his wife Barbara. The ship was the Damstadt out of Brehmen, Germany.
They moved to Freeman, South Dakota upon Immigration. They moved there perhaps because the Buechler that was a businessman in Freeman may have been her brother.
Barbara’s brother, Christian Buechler, was one of the first businessmen in Freeman, South Dakota. Christian arrived in South Dakota on 1 Aug 1873. His mother, a widow, came in 1875. There appears also to have been a Gust Buechler

Inventing, fishing, telling humorous stories, singing German songs and playing cards (whist, gin rummy, cribbage, and pinochle) were his favorite pastimes.

He was one of the few farm kids who went to high school first via correspondence school, then went to town his last year and a half after saving enough money to live in town.

His inventions covered a broad range. He designed and built a pop-up toy for his son that was cleverly simple and entertaining; a combine hitch; a carburetor that used a kerosene lamp wick; an electrical box with the ground screw in front; fishing gear; a saw that rotated a small amount which was enough to cut sheetrock but not skin. He never had enough money to file patents.

One of his most recognized inventions was a three-wheel bicycle with two wheels in front instead of back. This bicycle leans like a regular bicycle and is not rigid like a tricycle. Designed and built in the 1970s, a similar design is now available from other companies as a bicycle and as a motorcycle.

He commented how he had lost his strength – while he was swinging a sledgehammer at the age of 79. He retired as an electrician when he was 80 – for a month. Then he renewed his license, because he was bored. He continued working as an electrician until he was 85. He only charged $7.50 per hour. “Why should I charge more? Other people don’t have money either.”

His business card showed his sense of humor, “Ray Eisenbeis, Semi-Retired Electrician. If you can’t find your shorts, call Ray!”

He wrote poem titled “Why?”.

One of his sayings was, "If the grass looks greener on the other side of the fence, you're probably not taking care of your own side."

He had exceptional math skills. He would say, "Write the numbers 12345679.", then ask, "Which one did you write the worst?" Suppose the person said "3", he would the ask the person to multiply 12345679 times 27. The answer was 333333333. Then he would ask, "Can you

                          write the 3 better now?"

                       The double "S" at the end of the name came through a mistake on his immigration papers.
                       The middle initial initial was taken by him to distinguish him from the other John Eisenbeisz'es when he was in business in Bowdle.
                       Immediately after World War I, bought a Ford

b:2.1.1.1.6-9.5.2 FREDERICK EISENBEIS
* 7 Oct 1823, Neunkirchen/Saarland
+ Mar 1902 in Steilacoom, Washington
Moved from Neunkirchen/Saarland, Germany to Rochester, New York in 1856 with his brother Frederick to operate a bakery. A ship manifest from the ship F.A. Palmer shows Charles Eissenbeiss leaving Havre, France on 24 Mar 1856. It does not list Frederick.

Sailed to San Francisco, California in 1858 and then to Puget Sound, perhaps with brother Charles (or perhaps separately). Some records indicate Charles came via the Isthmus of Panama (passengers would disembark on the east coast of Panama, travel by land across Panama, and board a ship on the west coast). Lena b:2.1.1.1.6-9.5.2.7 insists her father (Frederick) came "came around the Horn" (south end of South America) and that the brothers came from "that area that was sometimes France and sometimes Germany" (presumably Saarland). His family referred to him as being from Prussia. Saarland was part of the Prussian Rhineland province after 1815 (under France 1680-1697 and 1793-1815) Opened a bakery in Steilacoom, Washington. His father in Prussia was also a baker.
Brother Charles died within a few days after Frederick's death.
oo Rosina (Rose) Denger, 7 Jun 1863, San Francisco, California
* circa 1847, New York

Sound, as did brother Frederick. Some records indicate Charles came via the Isthmus of Panama (passengers would disembark on the east coast of Panama, travel by land across Panama, and board a ship on the west coast). Lena b:2.1.1.1.6-9.5.2.7 insists her father (Frederick) came "came around the Horn" (south end of South America) and that the brothers came from "that area that was sometimes France and sometimes Germany" (presumably Saarland). His family referred to him as being from Prussia. Saarland was part of the Prussian Rhineland province after 1815 (under France 1680-1697 and 1793-1815)
Opened a bakery in Port Townsend, Washington, and sold crackers and ship bread.
Built the Eisenbeis Castle (later Manresa), a 30 room mansion, In 1892 for his wife, modeling it after a castle from the family homeland on the Rhine River.
Was a leading merchant. Was a founder and first mayor of Port Townsend and served two additional terms. Built Mount Baker Block, a 40,000 square foot building in Port Townsend (it has the name "Eisenbeis" embossed on the building).
Became quite wealthy with a brickyard, lumbermill, wharfs and docks, a hotel, bank, brewery, the Port Townsend Southern Railroad, and the Port Townsend Steel Wire and Nail Company.
Was naturalized on 11 May 1887, Bellingham, Whatcom County

Didn't marry.
Although the 2 Prussians (Charles and Frederick) had 16 children, the only Eisenbeis son to emerge from the 2nd generation was Sidney (b:2.1.1.1.6-9.5.2.8.1). Therefore, Frederick W. told Sidney (his father's great-nephew) that he would give him $500 if he had a son to carry on the Eisenbeis name. Sidney did become the only one to pass the name on when Craig Frederick Eisenbeis (b:2.1.1.1.6-9.5.2.8.1-1) was born In 1946. But, the promised stipend was never mentioned again. In his will, however, Frederick W. left an old building on Water Street in Port Townsend to Craig.
Frederick W. was buried in Laurel Grove Cemetary, outside the family vault, because it was collapsing at the time.

* 12 Sep 1829, Knox County, Ohio
+ 29 Oct 1900, 71y 1m 17d, Deep River, Iowa
d/o David Zook and Nancy Mack. Nancy's father, Alexander Mack, was one of the founders of the German Baptist Brethren Church in America.
Moved to Elkhart County, Indiana with parents in 1842
Joined the German Baptist Brethren (Dunkards) in 1855.
Published obituaries of Christian and Hannah stated their marriage date as 10 Oct 1848, however, a recently acquired copy of the original marriage record states date of marriage license as 28 Nov 1848 and date of marriage as 30 Nov 1848.
Was paralyzed for many years, possibly multiple sclerosis Lived her last years at the home of her son George
Moved to Jackson County, Iowa in 1854 where Hannah's brother, Joseph Zook, had acquired a large farm, on part of which the town of Fremont (now Baldwin) was built
The family moved to a farm east of Dresden (now Deep River), in Iowa County, Iowa in 1868.
Changed last name to Eissenbeiss (four ss), perhaps because of the German dialect spoken by his wife. Marriage record from Indiana and early land records in Iowa have the spelling Isenbice. All records from Deep River have the spelling Icenbice.

e: HENRY EISENBEIS
Unknown where born or died, or what happened to him before Anna remarried. It's interesting to note that he married Anna about one year after the Great Chicago Fire. A Henry Eisenbeis is listed in the 1872-1873 Chicago City Directory living two blocks from St. Wenceslaus Church; the occupation listed was Carver.
After marrying in Chicago, lived in Indiana in early 1870's and family later moved back to Chicago, probably between 1875 and 1879.
oo Anna (Annie) Pfisterer, 16 Oct 1872, Chicago, Illinois, St. Wenceslaus Catholic Church.
* 20 Nov 1856, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.
+ 18 Dec 1926, Chicago, Illinois
Changed maiden surname spelling to Pfister by time of her death. Anna's sister Amelia Pfister Ueber had children baptized in the same Catholic Church in Avilla as was son Charles; when Amelia's children married, her maiden name was listed as Foster instead of Phister. Anna's maiden name is listed as Phisterer on wedding certificate and on her son Charles's baptismal record. Anna married George Hefter (born in Maine in 1859) on 8 Oct. 1879 in Chicago, Illinois.
d/o John & Mary Pfisterer; they emigrated from Berlin, Germany.

According to church baptism records, Charles was baptized with the name Carl Joseph Eisenbeis, but he and his brother both changed their surnames to Eisenbies by the time they each married. Henry and Charles listed with surname Hefter in 1880 Census, living with their stepfather and mother.

* 2 Jan 1875, Avilla, Indiana
~ 31 Jan 1875, St. Mary's Catholic Church, Avilla, Indiana.
+ 29 Jan 1962, Chicago, Illinois
Father's and mother's names obtained from church baptism record; father's name spelled Eisenbeis and mother's name spelled Phisterer in the church record. Charles baptized name listed as "Carl Joseph" in the record. Charles changed surname spelling to Eisenbies by the time of his marriage. Charles is listed as son of George and Annie Hefter in 1880 census, living with them in Hyde Park (now in Chicago), Illionis.

Performed in Vaudeville in Chicago with brother, possibly using stage name of Fountain, when he was a young man. Worked in Chicago, Illinois in 1919 for Peninsular Stove Co. sales force. Had a cousin whose married name was Hilda Haynes (a lifetime resident of Avilla, Indiana) with a daughter Fayean (Fayean married Henry Seibel in Chicago, Illinois and they had a daughter and a son; after Henry died, Fayean and children moved to Avilla). Charles lived in Hilda's Avilla home in his later years and is buried in the same cemetery as Hilda, her parents (Sebastian and Clara (Ueber) Monger) and grandparents (Ludwig and Amelia (Foster) Ueber) in St. Mary's Catholic Church Cemetery, Avilla. While married, lived in Marengo, then Chicago, Illinois.

k:2.1.8 JOHANN HEINRICH (HENRY) EISENBEIS
* 8 Apr 1826, Kreis Münchberg, Oberfranken, Bayern, Germany.
~ 15 Apr 1826 in the German Evangelical Church
+ 16 Jul 1902, Louisville, Kentucky
Believed to be a member of a Freischutz, a revolutionary society (composer Richard Wagner was also a member).
Moved from Germany to America on the Atalanta and arrived in New York in May 1860. He eventually settled in Aurora, Indiana. Knew a family by the name of Pelgen; his future wife's sister (Clara Glas) married Frederick Pelgen and lived in Aurora.
Enlisted as a private in Company C, 32nd Indiana volunteers on 24 Aug 1861 for three year term. A high number of German-born men Were in this regiment, but there were also a number of native born men who were the sons of immigrants. Also, several exceptions included two Poles, one Czech, two or three Frenchmen, and a couple of Swiss. The most accurate description of the regiment may be that they were distinctly German, used the German language as primary and made use of modified Prussian tactics in drill and maneuvers. Johann Heinrich was mustered into service for the Civil War on 1 Sep 1861. First engagement was at Rowlett's Station near Munfordville, Kentucky, on 17 Dec 1861, where he was wounded in action by a cavalryman, sustaining a bullet wound to the front of his left leg just below the knee which broke both bones in his leg. The bullet remained in his leg for the rest of his life .. It gave him much trouble, and he was in and out of the hospital for treatment for many years. He achieved the rank of Sergeant and on 13 Feb 1864, was transferred to the 157th Company, 2nd Battalion, Veteran Reserve Corps because of his leg wound. He was honorably discharged on 24 Aug 1864, and filed for a pension in 1879. According to his grandson, Joseph J. Eisenbeis, "he was not too much concerned about slavery - it was more of an economic issue with him. Louisville was saved and so was the Union." Moved to Louisville, Kentucky, after the Civil War and lived in Ward 2.
Was a carpenter.
Was Protestant, did not join the Catholic church ... was a member of the German Evangelical Church in Louisville, but allowed his children to be reared in the Catholic faith.

y: MARTIN EISENBEIß
     * circa 1600
     Zimmermann (Carpenter) in Friesau bei Lobenstein im Vogtland, Thüringen, Friesau (07368) close to Gahma (the birth place of Simon b:)
     Lived in 1653 in Friesau bei Lobenstein, Thüringen (07356)
     Martin EISENBEIß (y:), a carpenter, was born at Friesau near Lobenstein.
      One of his sons, Andreas EISENBEIß moved to Wilhemsdorf where he married twice and had 11 children. He built a mill at Rüdisbronn (Rüdisbronn and Wilhemsdorf are about 40 kilometers west of Nürnberg). Some of his descendants (from 1650 to 1790) remain in this area, in Mark Erlbach as Mühlermeister and Carpenters.
     In an ancient Nürnberg cemetery, Johannis Grabe (constructed in 1600), exists a tomb with a sculpture representing two knights, one on the shoulders of the other, each with a sword between their teeth, with the epitaph Christian EISENBEIß 1814-1851.
     This drawing is found engraved on the purchase agreement of the mill of Wellesweiler/Saarland by Seyfried EISENBEIß (b:2.1.1).
     His descendants include Daniel EISENBEIß y:1.4.3.8.3-9 who emigrated to the USA and was registered to the union of millers in 1846, and another, Johann EISENBEIß y:1.4.3.8.3-6 who was the founder of the Nürnberger Konditorie Lebküchner (Nürnberger Confectioners Gingerbread) Shop.

Bäcker
Karl Eisenbeis aus der Talstrasse kämpfte von 1810-1814 in einem Jägerregiment, erhielt Hieb und Stichwunden in Arme und beine. Er machte den Zug Napoleons nach Russland mit, und erlebte die Schreckenslage in Moskau und an der Beresina, in der beinahe sein Grab gefunden hätte, wenn nicht rettende Hände ihn in letzter Minute aus den eisigen Fluten gezogen hätten; Er starb 1871 als Bäcker in Neunkirchen/Saarland.

Karl Eisenbeis, who lived on Tal Street, fought from 1810-1814 in a rifle regiment, received gashes and stab wounds in the arms and legs. He participated in Napoleons campaign in Russia, and experienced the terrible situation in Moscow and on the Beresina, in which he almost found his grave, had not saving hands pulled him from the icy waters at the last minute. He died in 1871 as a baker in Neunkirchen/Saarland.
